

Article and photos courteously of NJ DOC

Inmates Donate Non-Perishables to Food Pantry

Inmates at New Jersey State Prison donated non-perishable foods to the HomeFront Food Pantry program in Lawrenceville. The food drive was coordinated by the state's NAACP Prison Project Committee. The non-perishables, which were purchased by inmates at the prison's commissary, were loaded onto a truck and delivered to the food pantry on the morning of July 7.

(Photos by Scott Franks)

Anna Daily with member of Trenton Branch NAACP

Employees of Home Front transferring boxes from prison to service truck

Participants in transferring the donated food from NJSP to community food pantry

Anna Daily thanks the people for transferring the food on behalf of the NJ State Prison NAACP Branch members from the prison facility to the community food pantry